The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	He is a respectable member of the society and is very popular amongst the local population and enjoys support of the local electorate. There is only one FIR against him for raising his voice against irrational behaviour of a Govt. servant. Thus, the party deemed it fit to select him as a candidate. He is a popular youth leader of the party and hence enjoys considerable support of the electorate.
3. Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	Keeping in view, the services being rendered by him in the constituency and considering the FIR against him is foisted as a result of political vendetta, the party has preferred him over any other candidate. He is a familiar and popular face among the voters.

The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	He is a social worker and is very popular amongst the local population. He was a deputy mayor of South Delhi Municipal Corporation of Delhi and hence enjoys huge popularity in the constituency having a positive connect with the electorate. He has excellent leadership qualities. These qualifications reflect stellar qualities of a leader who has risen his way through the ranks and enjoys support of the party cadre.
